

December 25, 2009

Dear Pathology Program Directors,

On behalf of the Roger Haggitt Gastrointestinal Pathology Society (GIPS), I would like to invite applications for the “GIPS Award for the best presentation (platform or poster) in GI pathology by a resident/fellow”. All pathology residents/fellows who are presenting an abstract at the annual USCAP meeting in Washington DC in March 2010 are eligible to apply. The award comprises of a certificate from GIPS and a sum of $500.

Interested candidates should submit the following information: title of the study, poster or platform, abstract number, poster number, day and time of presentation (AM/PM for poster, exact time for platform presentation) and year of training. This information can be sent to me via e-mail or regular mail by February 26, 2010. If you have any further questions regarding this award, please do not hesitate to e-mail or call me.

Sincerely,

Matthew M. Yeh, MD, PhD
Chair, GIPS Training Committee
Associate Professor of Pathology
University of Washington School of Medicine
1959 NE Pacific Street, NE140D
Seattle, WA 98195-6100

Phone: 206-598-0008
Fax: 206-598-3803
e-mail: myeh@uw.edu